D G D

Refrain: Sai - li - ng home - ward to Co - ney Is - land

D G A<sup>7</sup>

past a Black - rock in Sli - go Bay.

D G D

With a west wind to drive us home - ward. What

D G A<sup>7</sup>

care we f - or the wind or sray.

We've been fishing since morning early
Since the sun first shone on the sea
We've a fine catch of shining mack'rel
Tasting codlings for Fridays tea

Ref. Sailing homeward to Coney Island ...

On a wheel now is Harvey Ewing
With Frank and Martin his trusty crew
For intoned here they earned the living
Need the wild skies and gales too

Ref. Sailing homeward to Coney Island ...

Up fair head now the "Metal Man" buoy
Pointing us to teh challenge clear
Their's Paddy Ewing and Frank Delaney
Swapping seagulls down under here

Ref. Sailing homeward to Coney Island ...

We'll be home now by this evening, early
With a good wind and flowing tide
We'll be met us by John McGowen
For a pint or two in "Engine Rooms".
