2. When the Alabama's keel was laid
this ship her building was begun.
3. And down the Mersey she rolled one day
across the ocean she ploughed her way.
4. With British guns, oh, she was stocked sailed from Fayal, in Cherbourg she docked.
5. To fight the North, Semmes did employ any method to kill and destroy.
6. But of Cherbourg the Kearsarge lay tight awaiting was Winslow to start a good fight.
7. Outside the three mile limit they fought
Semmes escaped on a fine British boat.
8. The Kearsarge won, Alabama so brave goes to the bottom, to a watery grave!
